

THE APPA Newsletter
July 28, 2009

See This Weekend

MISSION STATEMENT:

Promote full utilization of the capabilities of the Enterprise's employees and champion the betterment of the company and community. Promote interest in Asian Pacific issues and culture and act as a bridge to all groups within our community. (substitute in your Enterprise and company, etc...)

ed. by Douglas Ikemi
(dkikemi@pacbell.net)

Back issues of the newsletter for all of 2000, 2001, 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2008 and 2009 are available at <http://www.ikemi.info/APPA/newsletters>.

if you want to look up some past event.

This newsletter was originally published under the auspices of the Hughes Asian Pacific Professional Association (no longer extant). It currently has no affiliation and is available to anyone who is interested in downloading it.

Please send in information on cultural events and news items to dkikemi@pacbell.net. The mac.com address will be shut down soon. Thanks to those who have.

Long range calendar items:

Chinatown Farmers Market EVERY THURSDAY FROM 2-6PM, the Chinatown Farmers' Market takes place at Hill & Alpine bringing fresh fruits and produce by California Farmers to the Chinatown Community. FRIED BANANA, FRIED YAM, HAWAIIAN CHICKEN. We invite you to come and experience the Chinatown Farmers' Market. Free parking with purchase.

The Downtown Arts District/Little Tokyo Farmers' Market

Weller Court 2nd & San Pedro in Little Tokyo Summer Hours 10-3pm

Features fresh produce, Hawaiian Chicken, more food gifts...and live jazz band.

Tuesdays from 10 a.m.- 3 p.m.

The weekly market is held every Tuesday from 10 a.m.- 3 p.m year round, rain or shine. Sponsored by LARABA the market will include farm-fresh produce, Asian produce, organic produce, eggs, seafood, cheese, olives, olive oils, flowers, plants, bread and prepared foods and more. Hawaiian Chicken, Roasted corn on the cobb Local businesses interested in having a prepared food booth at the market or individuals interested in volunteering at this non-profit event, please contact Susan Hutchinson at 323-660-8660 for more information

Los Angeles Public Library Celebrates our DiverseCity

<http://www.lapl.org/kidspath/events/diversecity/index.html>

May 15 through August 23, 2009 "ANIME!" AN EXHIBITION OF THE DEUTSCHES FILMMUSEUM, FRANKFURT AM MAIN, GERMANY, PRESENTED IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE ACADEMY OF MOTION PICTURE ARTS AND SCIENCES. SUPPORT FOR THIS EXHIBITION PROVIDED BY THE GOETHE-INSTITUT, LOS ANGELES

Japanese comics and animation have had a strong influence on modern art and popular culture throughout Asia, Europe and the United States. Colorful and energetic, anime enjoys worldwide popularity through numerous television series and feature films such as "Akira" (1988), "Ghost in the Shell" (1995), "Perfect Blue" (1998) and "Metropolis" (2001).

Perhaps most widely known in the U.S. are the works of Hayao Miyazaki, which include "Princess Mononoke" (1997); "Spirited Away" (2001), which won the Academy Award® for Animated Feature Film in 2002; and the Oscar®-nominated feature "Howl's Moving Castle" (2004).

This electrifying traveling exhibition explores the history, aesthetics and production of Japanese animation from its earliest beginnings up through the cinematic successes and popular heroes of the late 1970s serials, and on to the current computer and video game manifestations of this cultural phenomenon.

"ANIME!" illustrates the fascination of anime and its dramatic, and often breathtaking, visual language. On view are rare collectors' items and artwork that has seldom been seen outside Japan. A portion of the exhibition is devoted to manga and its relationship to anime, providing a historical overview of the development of this "comic book" genre from 19th century Japanese woodcuts and book illustrations to the mass-produced manga of the present.

Where

The Academy's Grand Lobby Gallery and Fourth Floor Gallery

8949 Wilshire Boulevard

Beverly Hills, California

Public viewing hours

Tuesday – Friday: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday – Sunday: Noon to 6 p.m.

Closed Mondays.

Admission

Free

<http://www.oscars.org/events-exhibitions/exhibitions/2009/anime.html>

Fowler in Focus: Masks of Sri Lanka

Through August 30, 2009

Brightly painted wooden masks transform Sri Lankan dancers into specific characters that appear in curing rituals or popular entertainment. Ranging from comical to fierce, these unusual masks have long played an important role in performance genres that were created through the mixing of local indigenous religious traditions with strains of Buddhism and Hinduism originally imported from the Indian mainland in the first millennium BCE. The Fowler Museum collections include the most important assemblage of nineteenth and early twentieth century Sri Lankan masks in North America. Fowler in Focus: Masks of Sri Lanka presents twenty-five of these rare masks, as well as newly produced masks representing Singhaya (lion) and Mahasona (Great Graveyard Spirit) in full costume.

Developed in collaboration with David Blundell, associate professor, National Chengchi University, Taiwan and consultants in Matara, Southern Province, Sri Lanka: Conrad Ranawake, Institute for the Development of Community Strengths, and A. V. S. Ranasinghe, Sri Lanka Mask and Dance Ensemble. The accompanying programs are made possible through the Sri Lanka Foundation and the Yvonne Lenart Public Programs Fund.

UCLA Fowler Museum

Treasures through Six Generations: Chinese Painting and Calligraphy from the Weng Collection

10-31-2008 - 12-31-2009 The Korean Cultural Center, Los Angeles will be open the Korean Folk Art Museum at the first floor. The new exhibition title is "Emerging Country in East Asia - Elegant Life of Noble Class in Joseon Period".

The Joseon period (1392-1910) was the closest time period to present day Korea and a crucial element for understanding Korean heritage.

Visitor will experience the Joseon period at KCCLA

5505 Wilshire Blvd., L.A.

www.kccla.org

National Museum Presents!

Family Events at the National Museum

August 8: Kidding Around in the Kitchen Family Cooking Adventure: Summer Boredom Busters

August 15: Summer Festival on the Courtyard

August 29: Common Ground Tour for Families

August 29: Taiko for Families

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

369 East First Street

Los Angeles, California 90012

phone: 213.625.0414

fax: 213.625.1770

www.janm.org

Hollywood Chinese: The Arthur Dong Collection Exhibition / October 23, 2009 – May 31, 2010

Hollywood Chinese: The Arthur Dong Documentary Collection presents selections from over 800 pieces of movie memorabilia that was collected during the ten-year research for Arthur Dong's groundbreaking film, Hollywood Chinese. Through posters, lobby cards, film stills, and scripts and documents dating from 1912, visitors journey into a vivid and graphic study of how Chinese have been imagined in the movies, reflecting the social and cultural history of the Chinese in America during the last century. In addition to iconic depictions evidenced by material from films such as The Good Earth, The Vengeance of Fu Manchu, Charlie Chan in Honolulu, and Flower Drum Song, highlights of the collection include the surviving archive of pioneer Chinese American filmmaker James B. Leong, who produced the 1921 film, Lotus Blossom, in Los Angeles.

Filmmaker Arthur Dong is the Guest Curator for this exhibition.

The Chinese American Museum

425 N. Los Angeles Street

Los Angeles, CA 90012

(The cross street is Arcadia)

camla.org

Discovering Ganesha: Remover of Obstacles

Through September 20, 2009

Ganesha, the so-called "Elephant God," is one of the most adored and widely worshipped deities in the Hindu pantheon. In a series of stunning photographs, New York-based artist Shana Dressler investigates contemporary Ganesha festivals in Mumbai. Juxtaposed with classical representations of Ganesha from Pacific Asia Museum's collection, Dressler's vibrant photos connect the past and the present of India while illustrating the historical legacy and spiritual significance of Ganesha in Hindu society.

Curated by Yeonsoo Chee.

Pacific Asia Museum, Pasadena, CA

46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena California 91101 Google Map

Hours: Wed – Sun: 10:00am-6:00pm

<http://www.pacificasiamuseum.org/>

Steeped in History: The Art of Tea

Exhibition at the UCLA Fowler Museum, August 16-November 29, 2009

Sunday, August 16, 2009

UCLA Fowler Museum

308 Charles E. Young Drive North

Los Angeles,

Explore the cultural and historical significance of tea-after water, the world's most consumed beverage-through a magnificent and wide-ranging survey of visual art.

Chinese paintings; Japanese screens, ceramics, and prints; rare English and Colonial American paintings; photographs and historical documents; tea-serving paraphernalia from around the globe; and much more, all tell the fascinating history of tea drinking.

The subjects of the exhibition range from tea's mythic origins in the hills of South China through its enormous significance in Japan, its introduction in Europe by Dutch traders around 1610, its role in colonial American life beyond the clichés of the Boston Tea Party, and finally to its expanding importance as a global commodity at the height of the British Empire.

Steeped in History: The Art of Tea is guest curated by Beatrice Hohenegger. Major support for Steeped in History: The Art of Tea and publication is provided by the Henry Luce Foundation and Mr. Lloyd Cotsen, in memory of Bob Ahmanson. Additional support is generously provided by Patsy and Robert Sung, The Edna and Yu-Shan Han Charitable Foundation and Numi Tea.

The accompanying programs are made possible through the Yvonne Lenart Public Programs Fund, the UCLA Asia Institute and Manus, the support group for the Fowler Museum.

Media sponsorship provided by Edible Los Angeles.

Click here for further information about the exhibit.

Please visit the Asia Institute website for further information about the public lecture series.

Cost: Free

Tel: 310-825-4361

www.fowler.ucla.edu

Sponsor(s): Asia Institute, Fowler Museum at UCLA

Related Event(s)

Curator Lecture: Steeped in History: The Art of Tea

Beatrice Hohenegger, exhibition curator and author of "Liquid Jade: The Story of Tea from East to West"

Saturday, September 12, 2009

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM

learn more »

From Elephants to Tea: The Nilgiris under Colonial Rule

Sanjay Subrahmanyam, UCLA Professor of History

Thursday, September 24, 2009

7:00 PM - 8:00 PM

learn more »

Tea and Chinese Cultural Aesthetics

Pei-kai Cheng, Chinese Civilisation Centre, City University of Hong Kong

Saturday, October 24, 2009

3:00 PM - 4:00 PM

learn more »

The Buddhist Arts of Tea in Medieval China

James A. Benn presents the 22nd Annual Sammy Yukuan Lee Lecture on Chinese Archaeology and Art

Saturday, November 07, 2009

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

learn more »

Tea of the Samurai in Times of War and Peace

Morgan Pitelka, Occidental College

Sunday, November 22, 2009

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

learn more »

2009 North American Taiko Conference

August 7, 8, 9, 2009

Little Tokyo

Los Angeles, CA

<http://www.taikoconference.org/news>

Thursday, August 6, 8:00pm Anime Film Festival

TV Night: favorite episodes of Jubei-chan, Samurai Champloo, Rurouni Kenshin and Peacemaker

Enjoy extended gallery hours plus favorite tv episodes screened under the stars in the museum's beautiful courtyard garden with an introduction by animation historian Charles Solomon. This is an outdoor event, so beach chairs, blankets and picnics are welcome!

The action-comedy Jubei-chan: The Ninja Girl follows 14-year-old Jiyu Nanohana, a modern high school girl who discovers an eye patch that transforms her into the re-incarnation of Yagyu Jubei Mitsuyoshi, Japan's famed one-eyed samurai/ninja folk hero. Samurai Champloo takes place during the Edo period (1602 – 1868), but includes anachronistic elements like hip hop culture, break dancing, slang terms, and graffiti. The stylistically innovative series references actual events like the Shimabara Rebellion, and includes versions of real-life Edo personalities like Mariya Enshiro and Miyamoto Musashi.

Rurouni Kenshin follows Himura Kenshin as he travels through early Meiji Japan offering protection and aid to those in need, in atonement for the murders he committed as an assassin.

Peacemaker takes place in 19th century Japan as Young Tetsu serves the samurai who protect the capital under order of the Shogun. The series is renowned for its deep character development, especially as Tetsu grapples with his conflicting desires for revenge and peace.

Please note: Some of these episodes contain mature content and are not recommended for children under the age of 13. Members: Free Non-members: Included with Museum Admission.

pacificasiamuseum.org home

46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101 (626) 449-2742

Saturday, August 08-9, 2009 TAIKO JAM '09

No one has been presenting taiko longer than the JACCC and the Aratani/Japan America Theatre is still exactly where it's at to get a taste of the four corners of this art form.

JACCC's taiko curators have put together a taiko show that will stimulate, inspire and educate!

Hailing from Las Vegas is the dynamic Kaminari Taiko, from Oregon comes the visually stunning Portland Taiko, and representing Los Angeles are the intense Kishin Daiko and rhythmically creative On Ensemble.

Taiko Jam only happens every 2 years in conjunction with the North American Taiko Conference so don't hesitate and get your taiko jam on!!

at 8:00 PM

Aratani/Japan America Theatre

244 South San Pedro Street

Los Angeles, CA 90012

Phone: (213) 628-2725

Website: www.jaccc.org

E-Mail: jatevents@jaccc.org

Map & Directions

Aug 13 Chinese Film Festival 8PM

Enjoy extended gallery hours plus the second presentation in our Chinese Film Festival screened under the stars in the museum's beautiful courtyard garden. This is an outdoor event, so beach chairs, blankets and picnics are welcome!

Check back soon for more information on the film. Co-sponsored by EDI Media/Chinese American Film Festival.

Free for members, included with museum admission for non-members. RSVP to (626) 449-2742 ext. 31

46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101 (626) 449-2742

August 20 8pm Chinese Film Festival

Autumn Gem

Enjoy extended gallery hours plus Autumn Gem screened under the stars in the museum's beautiful courtyard garden. Filmmakers Rae Chang and Adam Tow will introduce the film and answer questions. This is an outdoor event, so beach chairs, blankets and picnics are welcome!

Autumn Gem tells the story of China's first feminist, Qiu Jin (1875 -1907). During China's last dynasty, Qiu Jin challenged traditional roles, demanding equal rights for women. An accomplished writer, political activist, and leader of a revolutionary army, she redefined what it meant to be a woman in early 20th-century China.

Free for members, included with museum admission for non-members. RSVP to (626) 449-2742 ext. 31

46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101 (626) 449-2742

Sept 12 Ganesha Free Family Festival

As seen in Discovering Ganesha, each August and September throughout the Hindu world huge festivals celebrate Lord Ganesha's birthday. We will celebrate it as well with music, dance, fashion, crafts, hands-on activities, and more! Free. 10AM-12PM

46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena, California 91101 (626) 449-2742

October 3, 2009 (5:30 to 10:00 p.m.) Moonbeams, Moon Cakes and More in Chinatown, L.A.

Los Angeles, CA (July 16, 2009)-- On Saturday, October 3, from 5:30 to 10:00 p.m., Chinatown will host the Southland's oldest annual mid-Autumn Moon Festival featuring cultural entertainment for the whole family. New this year, a competitive 5K run, a non-competitive 5K walk, and a 25-mile bike ride will take place in conjunction with the festival. The "Moon Festival Fun Bike Ride" starts at 4:00 p.m. with a scenic route to the Pasadena Rose Bowl and back along the Arroyo Seco Bike Path, through bicycle-friendly neighborhoods in Lincoln Heights and South Pasadena. The "Moonlight 5K Run/Walk" starts at 7:30 p.m., with a route that includes the L.A. State Historic Park and a sunset view of the old rail yards and downtown Los Angeles.

Central Plaza, the start and finish point for all races, is also the hub for entertainment that day. The Shaolin Warriors of Chinatown and Chinese acrobats will be featured during the afternoon hours, followed by a demonstration of moon cake making, free samples of moon cakes, and a performance explaining the origins of the Moon Festival by the 2009 Miss L.A. Chinatown Queen and Court at dusk. The Griffith Observatory, which is making telescopes available for the event, will demonstrate how to get the best views of Jupiter and the moon. Live music will be featured on stage until 10:00pm.

Moon Festival entertainment is free to the public and will run from 5:30 to 10:00 p.m. in Chinatown's historic Central Plaza (943-951 N. Broadway Street, Los Angeles, CA 90012). To register for the "Moonlight 5K Run/Walk" or the "Moon Festival Fun Bike Ride," please visit www.ChinatownLA.com. Entry fees will apply and an early registration discount will be offered until August 31st. While parking around the area is plentiful, the public is encouraged to use the convenient Metro Gold Line and exit at the Chinatown Station.

For information, contact the Chinatown Business Improvement District at (213) 680-0243, or the Chinese Chamber of Commerce at (213) 617-0396.

<http://chinatownla.com/news.php?newsId=51>

East San Gabriel Valley Japanese Community Center Akimatsuri
www.esgvjcc.org

Oct 24-25, 2009 Japan Expo
www.japanexpo.org

See LA Library DiverseCity events at <http://www.lapl.org/kidspath/events/diversecity/index.html>

This Weekend (and earlier/later)

CECILIA HAE-JIN LEE

Informal Talk/Booksigning: Quick and Easy Korean Cooking: More than 70 Everyday

Recipes

THURSDAY, JULY 30, 7:30 PM at Pacific Asia Museum in Pasadena

Using readily available ingredients and techniques already familiar to home cooks, Cecilia Hae-Jin Lee offers tantalizing Korean specialties. Appetizers and snacks, soups and hot pots, side dishes, rice noodles and entrees, and a whole chapter devoted to kimchi, will bring new flavors to your lunch or dinner table any day of the week.

Cecilia Hae-Jin Lee is a first-generation Korean-American who has written about food for the Los Angeles Times, Washington Post, Food & Wine, Eating Well, and Korean Culture.

To RSVP, please call the Museum Store, 626.449.2742, ext. 20. Light Korean refreshments will be available at the program.

Pacific Asia Museum 46 North Los Robles Avenue, Pasadena 91101

www.pacificasiamuseum.org

The Undiscovered Chinatown Tour (Aug)

Saturday, August 1, 2009

10:30am - 1pm

$20 per person

Group size is limited.

RSVP via email at info@chinatownla.com or call (213) 680-0243.

chinatownla.com

"The Undiscovered Chinatown Tour" To Uncover History, Treasures, and Great Shopping

Visit a temple, an herbal shop, art galleries, antique stores, and more when guided to the unique treasures--not to mention great bargains--to be found in Chinatown. The 2 1/2 -hour walking tour will be offered on the first Saturday of every month and will take visitors to a number of off-the-beaten-track points of interest, and will guide those interested in shopping to some of Chinatown's best bargains and its trendiest shops. See why Chinatown is touted by Sunset and Los Angeles magazines as one of the hottest destinations for urban adventurers! Wear comfortable walking shoes and be prepared to wind your way through a myriad of alleyways, plaza stalls, and classical courtyards to discover the charm of L.A.'s Chinatown.

For special tour arrangements or requests, please contact the BID office at (213) 680-0243 or via email at info@chinatownla.com with your need.

Obon festivals in Southern California

<http://www.japanese-city.com/calendar/events/japanese-city-events-locations-summer-obon-odori-taiko-line-dancing-dango-drums-games-food.php>

August 1, 2 Gardena Buddhist Temple

For more information email: info@gardenabuddhistchurch.org

Copyright 2009 Gardena Buddhist Church

1517 W 166th St., Gardena, CA, 90247
(310) 327-9400
<http://www.gardenabuddhistchurch.org/>

Aug 1 Buddhist Temple of San Diego Obon Odori (1 Day)
BON ODORI: Gathering of Joy (5-9 pm). Our colorful outdoor festivities begin with music, cultural displays, food sales. Family and community are invited to celebrate OBON, the Buddhist holiday dedicated to expressing joy and gratitude for the gifts of life, heritage, and those we have taken for granted or forgotten. We dance out of sheer gratitude for the contributions of people who made possible life as we know it. Japanese food, snacks, gifts, books; a drawing to benefit the temple's youth; and a rousing taiko performances. The unique OBON AGAIN RESALE SHOP offers new and vintage Japanese clothing, ceramics, gifts wares. Free, public welcome.

Schedule

5 pm - 9pm

Dance Time

5:30 p.m.

Location

2929 Market Street San Diego, CA 92102

Contact

(619) 239-0896

btsd@netzero.net

Rev. Tesshi Aoyama

Where I went last weekend (or the weekend before):
See dkikemi.blogspot.com

Resources:

LACMA calendar:

<http://www.lacma.org/events/Calendar.aspx>

UCLA Asia Institute calendar:

<http://www.international.ucla.edu/asia/events/index.asp?action=monthview>

Japanese American National Museum

<http://www.janm.org/events/>

Chinese American Museum

<http://camla.org/events/calendar.htm>

Korean Cultural Center

<http://www.kccla.org/>

Japanese American Community Cultural Center

<http://jaccc.org/>

Pacifica Asian Museum

<http://www.pacificasianmuseum.org/calendar/whatsnew.htm>

Links to selected articles from the LA Times and other papers. To actually access the articles, you may have to sign up for a free account.

Wild cast of characters highlight the fringe of the soccer world

From an irate Japanese official to a confused Brazilian man in his underwear to a murderous housewife in Malaysia and many others, there's plenty of strangeness going on lately.

By Grahame L. Jones, On Soccer

July 26, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/sports/la-sp-jones-soccer26-2009jul26.0.1769506.story>

Mob beats Chinese steel factory executive to death

Thousands of workers had gathered in northeastern rust belt city of Tonghua to protest the takeover of their company and threatened layoffs.

July 27, 2009

David Pierson

<http://www.latimes.com/business/la-fi-china-mob27-2009jul27.0.3235364.story>

And then there were two: Obama meets the Chinese; transcript of president's speech
Johanna Neuman

<http://latimesblogs.latimes.com/washington/2009/07/and-then-there-were-two-obama-meets-the-chinese-text-here.html>

California issues formal apology for past discrimination against Chinese

The wave of immigrants who worked dangerous jobs building railroads and early California infrastructure faced decades of discrimination, marriage restrictions and private injustices.

By Corina Knoll

July 23, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-chinese-apology23-2009jul23.0.6063970.story>

U.S.-China talks to focus on global economy, environmental policy

The meeting is likely to highlight Beijing's unease about its U.S. bond holdings, Washington's desire to reduce China's reliance on exports and the need to reach consensus on tackling climate change.

By David Pierson and Don Lee

July 27, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/business/la-fi-china27-2009jul27.0.3762994.story>

China, Taiwan presidents exchange direct messages

It is the first contact of its kind since the two sides split in civil war 60 years ago.

The Associated Press

4:20 AM PDT, July 27, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/news/nationworld/world/la-fg-china-taiwan28-2009jul28.0.6880299.story>

Uighur tensions show up at Australia film festival

Three Chinese filmmakers have pulled their films from the Melbourne Film Festival over an Australian documentary profiling Uighur leader Rebiya Kadeer, whom Beijing has accused of fomenting unrest.

By Joshua Frank and Barbara Demick

July 25, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/news/nationworld/world/la-fg-china-uighur-film25-2009jul25.0.908365.story>

Asia views solar eclipse

July 22, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/photography/la-fg-china-eclipse-pictures.0.516780.photogallery>

South Korean creates kimchi that won't smell

Kim Soon-ja says her freeze-dried pickled cabbage, which has the taste but not the odor many associate with the national dish, will appeal to foreigners and fussy Koreans.

By Ju-min Park

July 23, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/news/nationworld/world/la-fg-korea-kimchi23-2009jul23.0.3664424.story>

Climate change could put the heat on California crops

<http://latimesblogs.latimes.com/dailydish/2009/07/climate-change-could-put-the-heat-on-california-crops.html>

BOOK REVIEW

'Short Girls' by Bich Minh Nguyen

Stories offer characters not revenge or redemption but the simple gift of acceptance.

By Marion Winik

July 24, 2009

<http://www.latimes.com/features/books/la-et-book24-2009jul24.0.757693.story>