January 22 through March 29 Ink Painting and Construction of Contemporary Chinese Art

From Qiu Deshu's inked paper collage to Cai Guangbin's black and white photography inspired images, and Wang Dongling's action calligraphy to Zou Cao's fingerprint landscape painting, this group exhibition of twelve artists showcases the diversity and innovation in contemporary Chinese ink art. Audacious, refreshing, and dexterous, the artists demonstrate their effort in breaking through the boundaries of tradition. With their experiments in subject matter, material application and execution, and in introducing contemporary vocabulary such as mixed media, conceptual art, action painting and abstraction to ink art, these artists seek new possibilities to create a dialogue with contemporary art in other parts of the world. Ink Painting And Construction Of Contemporary Chinese Art will be on view from January 22 through March 29, 2015. Special thanks to the Cai Family.

Featured Artists: Qiu Deshu, Wang Dongling, Li Huayi, Pan Gongkai, Lu Fusheng, Zhang Hong, Gan Yifei, Wang Tiande, Zheng Chongbin, Cai Guangbin, Lu Chuntao, Li Huai, and Zou Cao

March 21, 2015 Aratani World Series

MANA - Music and Dance of the Philippines & Hawai'i

Saturday, at 7:00PM at Aratani Theatre

244 S. San Pedro Street

Los Angeles, CA 90012

MANA – Music & Dance of the Philippines & Hawai'i Featuring Kayamanan Ng Lahi with Patrick Landeza, Abe Lagrimas, Jr.

Kayamanan Ng Lahi celebrates its 25th anniversary year in the Aratani World Series.

Under the leadership of Joel Jacinto, Barbara Ele and Ave Jacinto, Kayamanan is one of the most distinguished Philippine Dance company in the US. Their new program MANA will premiere in the Aratani and then go on, by invitation, to the 2015 Merrie Monarch Festival in Hilo, Hawaii.

In collaboration with Filipino-Americans Patrick Landeza (Slack Key Guitarist) and Abe Lagrimas Jr. (Ukelele), MANA speaks to the ancestral ties between Filipino and Hawaiian culture. The concept of “mana” comes from the shared lexicon of the Pacific and Southeast Asian region. In the Philippines, “mana” refers to the precious things learned and inherited from ancestors, in Hawai'i “mana” is the spiritual energy that can exist in places, objects and persons. In this new production, Kayamanan Ng Lahi speaks to the shared spirit of mana that is within us all, defining and strengthening us as keepers of our heritage and cultural heirlooms.

March 24 Nibei's lecture series to feature American girl's experience in 1954 Hiroshima
The Nibei Foundation will feature Ms. Farida Futouhi, author of "Charcoal Girl – Meeting the Ghost of the A-Bomb in 1954 Hiroshima" as the speaker of the Powerful Networking Meeting Lecture Series on Tuesday, March 24, at Tersaki Foundation Laboratory Building, 11570 West Olympic Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90064.

Admission free.

The dinner with the author will start at 6:00 p.m. and the lecture will start at 7:00 p.m.

Dinner costs $10 per person. Dinner reservation and choice of menu are required in advance. For dinner reservation, contact Naoko Okada by email nibei@nibei.org or call (310) 479-6101 ext. 134.

Farida Fotouhi, author of "Charcoal Girl – Meeting the Ghost of the A-Bomb in 1954 Hiroshima," will tell the story behind her book.

Ms. Fotouhi's father was the first American diplomat stationed in Hiroshima after the atomic bomb, and Farida was the only American in her Japanese elementary school.

Her talk will be illustrated with photos and excerpts from her book, including the “kamishibai” (graphic novel) she wrote at age 7 in Japanese, not realizing at the time that it was a metaphor for the atomic bomb and the human costs of war. It’s an inspiring story of how former enemies became friends, demonstrating ways the human heart can bridge the chasms of past enmities. It’s also a fascinating look into what Japan was like after WWII before the “economic miracle.”

Ms. Fotouhi is now President of Reality2, a branding and creative agency in Los Angeles.
