CURRENT EXHIBITIONS

USC Pacific Asia Museum is proud to present a variety of exhibitions throughout the year. The following are currently on view:

Visualizing Enlightenment: Decoding the Buddhist Iconography

March 20 through July 24, 2015

Visualizing Enlightenment focuses on an exceptional Amitabha (or Amida Buddha) from the Kamakura period (1185-1333) in Japan. Over 6-feet tall, Amitabha is a rare example of such large scale in existence and was executed using the technique yosegi, in which a single image is carved from multiple pieces of wood that are joined together from the inside.

Ikko Style: The Graphic Art of Ikko Tanaka

April 2, 2015 through August 2, 2015

Focusing on the core of his artistic practice, poster design, Ikko Style will provide a colorful look into how Ikko TANAKA's ideas were visualized and transmitted to a broad audience.

46 North Los Robles Avenue

Pasadena, California 91101

Open Wednesday through Sunday 10am to 6pm

April 11, 2015-July 11, 2015 A Master. China's Picasso.

The People's Artist. All of these prestigious titles belong to one man, Qi Baishi. Regardless of which title precedes him, Qi Baishi is widely regarded as the most well-known and influential Chinese modern artist.

Qi Baishi: China's Modern Master features over 40 of the artist's paintings, seal carvings and woodworks, all of which have never before been seen outside of China. These works exemplify the celebrated way in which Qi Baishi employed traditional Chinese style and technique in tandem with modern individualism and expression. This exhibition is on loan from the Hunan Provincial Museum in Changsha, China.

July 25, 2015 "J-Town Jazz Club" And Dan Taguchi Big Band

Saturday, at 2:00PM

at Aratani Theatre

244 S. San Pedro Street

Los Angeles, CA 90012

US

Presented by the Union Church of Los Angeles

Written by Soji Kashiwagi

Directed by Darrell Kunitomi

Musical Director: Scott Nagatani

In the "J-Town Jazz Club," a group of Japanese Americans return to Little Tokyo after three years in camp to find that the place they called home has become an African American enclave known as "Bronzeville." Featuring famous blues tunes from the era, this musical drama shares a little-known history of Los Angeles when Little Tokyo was alive with new people, new businesses, new churches--and jazz legends like Charlie Parker--brought the blues to J-Town.

Starting the night off with the "Dan Taguchi Big Band" who will set the tone with some favorite songs of the 1940's.

Tickets available @ www.jaccc.org

June 19 Fusion Fridays

■ Special Event

Friday, 7.-10 p.m.

Fusion Fridays are back! Celebrate the work of Japanese graphic artist Ikko Tanaka with an evening filled with the signature blend of eclectic and accessible worldly sounds by DJ Rani De Leon, unique shadow puppet performances by Leslie K. Gray, interact with performance artist Nori Shirasu, fun food truck dining, and Ikko colored cocktails at the cash bar. Plus, guests can design their own tangrams inside the gallery or work with artists from the Armory Center for the Arts to create their personal Ikko-inspired prints. The exhibition "Ikko Style: The Graphic Art of Ikko Tanka" (April 2 - August 2) features a selection of posters and books from the museum's permanent collection by the postwar Japanese master designer Ikko Tanaka. This exhibition, as well as all the permanent collection galleries, will be open all night.
