JANM Summer Night Concerts—Viva La Taiko: From Tokyo to Los Angeles

FREE

JANM's summer evening concert series featuring Asian American performers is back! Tonight's focus is on taiko, with featured performers Isaku Kageyama and East LA Taiko.

An award-winning musician, composer, and educator, Kageyama will demonstrate styles of taiko drumming indigenous to the Tokyo area in both traditional and contemporary arrangements. His performance will include brief explanations of the historical and cultural background of each piece.

The ensemble East LA Taiko, featuring Chicana rockstar Lysa Flores, will then bring the concert back to the heart of Los Angeles with their unique and infectious blend of Latin musical roots, Afro-Cuban rhythms, ska-punk riffs, and driving taiko beats. Join us for a very special evening that will evoke musical traditions from around the globe!

The Week that Changed the World: Nixon, China and the Arts

On view through August 18, 2016

Location: Jewel Court, South Coast Plaza

USC PAM partnered with South Coast Plaza and renowned arts institutions to present a one-of-a-kind exhibition this summer celebrating significant arts and cultural developments resulting from President Richard Nixon's historic 1972 trip to China - the first time a U.S. president visited that nation.

The world-class, 2,300 sq.-ft. multi-media exhibition will feature a dynamic cylindrical design with culturally relevant themes.

Tales of the Distant Past: The Story of Hong Kong and the Chinese Diaspora (A Tribute from the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals of Hong Kong)

October 6, 2015 - October 9, 2016

Millions of Chinese have emigrated overseas since the 1850s. Although known more for its pivotal position as a port city, Hong Kong was also a gateway for the Chinese diaspora, facilitating the migration of Chinese to over 135 different countries worldwide.

Tales of the Distant Past: The Story of Hong Kong and the Chinese Diaspora (A Tribute from the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals in Hong Kong) explores the factors leading to this mass migration and examines the role of both Hong Kong and the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals in supporting the needs of Chinese living in Hong Kong and abroad. Established in 1870, the Tung Wah Group of Hospitals is the longest standing and largest philanthropic organization in Hong Kong. The Chinese American Museum is located in the red-bricked historic Garnier Building, located at El Pueblo de Los Angeles Historical Monument across from downtown Los Angeles' Union Station. Just follow the hanging lanterns, south of Olvera Street, to find the museum site.
