This Weekend:

Memorial Day Weekend. Probably a good time to stay home and remember my uncle who was in MIS.

Keep wearing your face mask and don't linger in enclosed areas with other people. Staying in contact with Skype and now Zoom when required on a Chromebook.

-----!

Where I went the past week:

I took a drive out to the Sepulveda Basin for a walk to Sepulveda Basin Wildlife Preserve, which is open. I parked outside of the Japanese Garden, which is still closed, and open only on weekends anyway. I have visited the garden a number, of times, but this was the first time I explored the area around it. A big surprise was that on the north side of the garden are the remains of Nike Missile base LA-96L. From the street you can still see the doors of the underground missile magazines within a restricted Air National Guard facility. A reminder that there were crazy times in the past, too.
