MISSION STATEMENT: Promote full utilization of the capabilities of the Enterprise's employees and champion the betterment of the company and community. Promote interest in Asian Pacific issues and culture and act as a bridge to all groups within our community. (substitute in your Enterprise and company, etc...)

ed. by Douglas Ikemi (dkikemi@gmail.com)

Back issues of the newsletter for all of 2000-2024 are available at <http://www.ikemi.info/APPA/newsletters>. if you want to look up some past event. This newsletter was originally published under the auspices of the Hughes Asian Pacific Professional Association (no longer extant). It currently has no affiliation and is available to anyone who is interested in downloading it.

Please send in information on cultural events and news items to dkikemi@pacbell.net.

Note that many events are being cancelled or rescheduled due to the wildfires and threat of more wildfires due to predicted increased wind events this week. For example, I received an email stating:

“Due to the wildfires resulting in a significant impact on air quality and the strain on local resources, we have made the decision to postpone all of the Los Angeles Firecracker Run/Walk, Bike, Kiddie & Dog events that were originally scheduled for February 1 & 2, 2025.”

Many museums and gardens are closed, especially in the Pasadena and Arcadia areas. The last I checked the South Coast Botanic Garden is open. This is a major tragedy for the Los Angeles area and I hope it doesn't spread to OC and Ventura.

Emergence: Art from Life is singular among PST ART exhibitions for its presentation of living biological artworks and projects created in collaboration with a global cohort of synthetic biologists and medical researchers. Visitors will encounter human bones grown from synthetic mother-of-pearl; objects dyed with bioengineered indigo pigment; and living, microscopic human tear glands that cry. These works invite us to consider what it means to be human now: our aspirations, follies, entanglements, and impacts on symbiotic life forms, each other, and the planet.

This Weekend and more:

Once again:

Good Time to stay home if you can and avoid the bad air quality as required. Stay safe and watch out for curfews and evacuation orders.

Do something virtual if you can get on the internet.

We have had a brief respite in some areas for the time being but the situation may quickly change.

Another postponed event:

“Due to concerns regarding the ongoing wildfires and unpredictable weather conditions affecting Los Angeles, the screening of The Toll of the Sea, originally scheduled for January 16th at 6:00 pm, is postponed. This decision was made with the safety and well-being of our attendees, staff, and the community as our highest priority.

We are currently working to reschedule the event and we will announce the new date as soon as possible. Please check your email or visit camla.org/upcoming-events for event-related updates. If you have any immediate questions, feel free to contact us at info@camla.org.

We appreciate your understanding and patience as we navigate this challenging situation. Our thoughts are with those impacted by the wildfires, and we encourage everyone to stay safe and informed during this time.

Thank you for your continued support, and we look forward to hosting Unmasking: The Toll of the Sea on a later date.

The Monterey Park Lunar New Year Festival was scheduled for this weekend:

<https://www.montereypark.ca.gov/669/Lunar-New-Year-Festival>

but check to see if it is going to be rescheduled.

Likewise the Rancho Cucamonga Lunar Festival is also scheduled for this weekend:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/3rd-annual-2025-rancho-cucamonga-lunar-festival-jan-18-19-tickets-912889616417>

Join the Chinese American Museum on Thursday, January 16th at 6:00 pm at the historic Pico House (424 N. Main St., Los Angeles, CA 90012) for a special, colorized screening of The Toll of the Sea (1922). The film, directed by Chester M. Franklin and produced by Technicolor Motion Picture Corporation, features Anna May Wong at just 17 years old in her first leading role. Despite being a silent film, Wong's emotive and expressive nature has led many to consider The Toll of the Sea as her breakout role in the film industry.

Featured alongside the film screening will be an exclusive commentary and a post-screening discussion courtesy of Anna Wong, niece of Hollywood star Anna May Wong, and Katie Gee Salisbury, author of Not Your China Doll.

RSVP today at camla.org/thetoll to join us in watching Anna May Wong shine in her first leading role and explore her life and enduring legacy through insightful conversations with experts on the iconic figure. “

Where I went the past weeks and may have heard of at the last minute (and before, since webinars are often still available online):

My internet was out this past week so I had trouble virtually checking out the world. Did drive out to the Citadel Outlets on Friday to get to the top of their parking structure to get a 360 of the Basin. Looked very nasty towards Pasadena. Altadena is just beyond. Really bad smoke up there, as one might expect.

The Citadel looked like it was putting up decorations for Lunar New Year.

According to their website:

<https://www.citadeloutlets.com/event/Lunar-New-Year-Celebration/2145579234/>

they were planning on a celebration Feb 1-2. We will have to see if that is rescheduled.

When I was there ash was falling and some stores were closed.

Previously:

Visited the Go For Broke Center and got a guided tour. Learned a few new things.

Checked out the outdoor Shogatsu event at the JANM but didn't go in since it looked too crowded for me.

Did attend the Shogatsu festivities at Weller Court today, including the ones noted above
