KCLS Author Voices: Kiku Hughes [recording]

Saturday, May 17, 2-3:30 pm PT

IN-PERSON or VIRTUAL

Join King County Library System and Densho at the Bellevue Library (or virtually!) for a conversation with Kiku Hughes, author of Displacement. Get an insight on the historical and personal impact that the WWII Japanese American incarceration camps have had, and the intergenerational issues they've left behind.

Watch the recording at:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8kQ03HD7By8>

I watched the original webinar back in May and I finally got around to reading my digital version of the graphic novel displacement. As the author acknowledges, the time travel structure is inspired by Octavia Butler. I thought it is one of the better fictionalized accounts of life in the camps.

Where I went the past weeks and may have heard of at the last minute (and before, since webinars are often still available online):

Saturday I attended the Golden Dragon Parade in LA Chinatown. My photos at:
<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/GoldenDragon2026/index.html>

Sunday I went to the Huntington Gardens for their Lunar New Year. Could only get at 1PM. I had booked tickets 2 hours after they became available, and that’s the best time I could get. Once again, I missed the Peking opera, but I did see the Korean dance performance.
<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/HuntingtonLunar2026/index.html>

Previously:

I went to the South Coast Botanical Garden Lunar New Year Festival. I missed the performances which were sold out and I was too late for the pop up Palos Verdes High School, so my coverage was limited. Photos at:
<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/SCBGLunar2026/index.html>

I also drove to the UVSA Tet Festival at Golden West College:
<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/Tet2026/index.html>

I went to and enjoyed the San Gabriel River Park Lunar New Year Festival. It eventually attracted quite a crowd for the small venue. My photos at <http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/SGRiverParkLunar2026/index.html>

From there I dashed to the JANM Democracy Center to see the JANM Book Club: The Poet and the Silk Girl with Satsuki Ina (mom) and Adrian Tomine (son). I was impressed enough to buy the eBook version.

I honored the national ICE Out strike on Friday and Saturday, but on Sunday I made it out to the Bowers Museum Lunar Festival. My photos at:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/BowersLunar2026/index.html>

This festival was packed so I didn't catch all of it and I took a break inside the museum to see Global Threads. Originally I wasn't planning on seeing this one, but it turned out to be very worthwhile and I learned a lot. Highly recommended.

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/GlobalThreads2026/index.html>

for information about the exhibit itself:

<https://www.bowers.org/index.php/exhibitions/current-exhibitions/global-threads-india%E2%80%99s-textile-revolution> and then dashed over to the first time ever Chino Lunar Festival for a few hours

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/ChinoLunar2026/index.html>

This festival was organized by the same people who put on the Riverside and Rancho Cucamonga festivals.

Made it out to the Riverside Lunar New Year Festival. My photos at <http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/RiversideLunar2026/index.html>

Included are photos of the historical Harada House which is undergoing restoration. For more info see the Wikipedia entry at https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Harada_House

Also photos of the Martin Luther King statue and memorial.

Also went to the Boyle Heights talk by Prof. George Sanchez at the Homestead Museum.

Learned that Boyle Heights had a very diverse population at one time, including a lot of Japanese. You can read more in Sanchez's book:

Boyle Heights: How a Los Angeles Neighborhood Became the Future of American Democracy (American Crossroads) (Volume 59) 2021

Made it to the revived Shikishi exhibit at the JACCC on its last day. Kind of restrained compared to past exhibits, but I like some of the presentations and at least it is back.

Feeling cheap so I skipped the big ticket events and went to a couple of free ones that were new to me:

On Saturday I went to the Rancho Cucamonga Lunar New Year Festival. Nice event. My photos at:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/RCLunar2026/index.html>

and then on Sunday I went to the LA Central Library where they had a small belated Japanese New Year event:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/LALibrary2026/index.html>

Also gave myself a little tour of the library.

I made it to the belated JANM shogatsu celebration at the JACCC courtyard. A much welcomed collaboration made for a better venue and experience. Instead of the rain on the real Jan 1, we had a beautiful sunny day. Also took in the ikebana display; very convenient. My photos at:

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/Shogatsu2026/index.html>

I cut it short so I could zoom down to Torrance for their Lunar New Year Festival, in this case very early. I caught the tail end but did get to see and hear (in spite of a generator running very loudly) the youth orchestra. In a future without scheduling conflicts, I would like to experience more of it.

<http://ikemi.info/Graphics2026/TorranceLunar2026/index.html>

Happy New Year!

I used the rain as an excuse to catch up with my reading.
